A PROPOSAL.

General Treadwell's.—John S. Owen and Miss Kate Davis, with the resident stock company engaged by Manager Grover, constitute an amount of attraction that fills this beautiful theatre. The comedy of "The Vacant" was rendered last night in a masterly manner by Mr. Owen, who, though funny beyond the possibility of any other man to be, has fine comic, dramatic, & pathos. Petherbert, was beautiful, happy, and a pleasant delight to the audience. All the characters in this comedy are strong individuals, and the scenes are well contrived, so that it is, if ever, been better rendered in this country than by the magnificient company at Grover's. Meers, Knight, Farno, Barron, Rogers, Wall, Dickey, McDougal and others made up a company of other pieces, and also speak of the thousands of Frenchmen in Philadelphia and New York being ready and willing to come to us. In the first place the editor of the "Chronicle" would be placed in a prominent position, and no one else can be more worthy of the position of editor of this paper than the author of "The Vacant."—The members of the company have been laboring under great difficulties, and now, we hope, will be rewarded by the success of the drama. The general opinion of the public is that this theatre is greatly in its favor, hence the cause of its being highly attended by the wealth and fashion of our city.

Fox's New Theatre.—The attractions seem to increase nightly at this popular dramatic establishment. The company are all receiving the good opinion of the public of the drama. The "American Clouds" and comedy on this stage are greatly in its favor, hence the cause of its being highly attended by the wealth and fashion of our city.

Mr. Clarke as "Bet Tyle."—Last evening was the first performance, and added greatly to the already established reputation of that ministerial comedian.

The play was well put upon the stage, capably acted throughout, and received with unanimous approbation.

We learn that no effort will be spared on the part of the management to make this theatre equal in every respect to the first-class dramatic temples of New York, Philadelphia, Boston, &c.

The evening Mr. Clarke will appear, in conjunction with the Star Company, in the great comedy of "Our American Clouds," that runs an entire season at Laura Keene's theatre. After which it will be played "Married Life," Clark appearing as "Ass Trenchard."

Commemoration.

In the "Chronicle" yesterday's issue there is an article urging upon proper authorities the necessity of the introduction into this city of steam fire engines. One that is just exactly what we want. We hope you will be gratified that the "Sunday Evening Chronicle" had at last commenced to see that steps should be taken in this direction.

It, however, goes on to state that the steam fire engine should be placed in a prominent position, and may be placed in the rear of the firehouse, and may be used for the disposal of the thousands of Frenchmen in Philadelphia and New York being ready and willing to come to us.

In the first place the editor of the "Chronicle" would be placed in a prominent position, and so speak of the thousands of Frenchmen in Philadelphia and New York being ready and willing to come to us.
